

BFC Rides (These rides are subject to me getting my Bike going I will ring you all the week prior to Septembers ride)

Saturday 21st September (School holidays again I think?) But we will see what happens anyway, we will be departing Woollies Servo Paradise Rd. Slacks Creek at 9am heading up the freeway to the Gap through Mt Nebo, Mt Glorious, round Somerset damn and return along the Ipswich motorway, a very nice long ride I estimate it to be about close to 300 Klm's, there will be regular stops for views, toilets, and smoke break for those who need it.

Saturday 26th October - Ulysses Poker run and Rally, camping is free, I will head up there Friday a/c, the poker run is on Saturday $15 entry back to camp site with gymkhana and Bands, catering available. More info - Pat McGreevy 3288 2775; Terry Greeves 3200 5228.

*Uphold in Prayer

These people and their families, they ride with us at different times or support us in different ways, pray for them when you think of them for a spirit of wisdom and understanding, that God would bless them and extend their borders, that they would be kept safe as they go about their daily business.

Other Biker events

Sept 7&8 The Old Fast rally - Morgan park raceway @ Warwick $15 entry for racing, live bands, bike raffle more info on 07 5495 4655 Business hrs.

September 8 Mapleton Bike show @ hall grounds Mapleton on Obi Obi Rd more info Kim on 07 5476 0281 (I have heard it is a good bike show and worth the trip, even the ride up there is pretty good).

14th September God's Squad Memorial Ride meeting 11am at JC Slaughter falls Mt Cootha. $10 entry, keep it in mind, a great ride and rolling bike show. Also keep it in mind that they stop at a few pubs along the way, so if you have a problem with drinking alcohol - Don't go! I reckon Orange juice is better anyway, you can't get done for Drink Riding then too. All the same it is a good ride with about 100 bikes or so.

4th October, Midnight to Dawn Ride. Starting at the Caltex Carseldine at midnight and finishing somewhere. $10 rider, $5 pillion - prizes etc. A navigational ride - need a pillion with a torch.

WELL DONE, GOOD AND FAITHFUL SERVANT.

Mat 7:21-23 Not everyone who says to Me, Lord! Lord! shall enter the kingdom of Heaven, but he who does the will of My Father in Heaven. Many will say to Me in that day, Lord! Lord! Did we not prophesy in Your name, and through Your name throw out demons, and through Your name do many wonderful works? And then I will say to them I never knew you! Depart from Me, those working lawlessness!

The above scripture can bring many questions to our minds. Am I saved? Am I doing God's will? Who can be saved? What will Jesus say to me "in that day"? And many more you could probably think of. But read the previous verse 20 and this will answer all your questions. Jesus is talking about fruit and if you look it up in the strong's dictionary it talks about evil or good that comes from a person, and I truly believe this is talking about the fruit of the Spirit - Love, joy, peace, patience, gentleness, kindness, meekness etc. found in Galatians Ch5:22.

I see a lot of on the streets trying to win people to Jesus and fill up churches and get the "numbers" up, I hear of how many people "I" have won to the Lord today or this week or last year, frankly none of it impresses me! What impresses me is when the Holy Spirit moves upon a preacher in the pulpit or a person on the street van to care about others and be moved by the Holy Spirit to lead people to the throne of grace, that is what Jesus did yes? Jesus did not tell us to go into all the world and make converts, he told us to go and make disciples.

I remember when I first "gave my life to the Lord", the only reason I did it was to stop this guy from nagging me beside me at a youth festival to go forward, the bible tells us that no-one can be born again unless he is drawn by the Spirit of God this can be seen through the book of John particularly chapter 3, also at Rom 8:14 and "as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God. And John 3:5 "Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God".

It was not until I realised I was a sinner and had to repent (turn around or away from) of my sin and ask Jesus into my life that I was born again and that was done when my mother was raised up off her death bed 21 years ago. No preachers or preaching were involved it was the time I was saved not at the youth festival.

Yes the Bible says to go out into the streets and share the gospel (good news) but when it becomes nagging to a person it is no longer "good news" to them. The apostle

Paul spoke in 1 Corinthians ch 13 about Love and noisy gongs, if we have no love for the people we are trying to win to the Lord then we are useless. Yet, not everyone has to win people to the Lord. Jesus himself said in John 4:36-38 “he that reapeth receiveth wages, and gathereth fruit unto life eternal: that both he that soweth and he that reapeth may rejoice together. And herein is that saying true, One soweth, and another reapeth. I sent you to reap that whereon ye bestowed no labour: other men laboured, and ye are entered into their labours”.

My mother did not really start to believe all this church and Christianity stuff was real until she met a man named Terry Walker in a little shed in Kingston, as far as I know she was the only one that Terry would set up a chair for her near the door so she could have a cigarette as long as she listened to what he had to say, then he would go out of his way to say Hi to her afterwards and that really impressed her, she died soon after but not before giving her life to Jesus. Out of all the nagging and all the stories and things I tried, it was that one man cared enough for a rough old bikie lady to make her comfortable in his church that won her over.

My new mobile logo W.W.J.D challenges me every day more and more, what did Jesus do when he walked the streets of Israel? He loved people, he showed compassion, he never judged, he won many but he also lost many too. Not everyone stayed with him, it is still the same today, take the time out to care for someone in some way, I think it was Wesley that said go and preach but without words.

I love the song that says “when we get closer to Jesus all the things of this world will grow strangely dim”. Where are our eyes set? I am learning even while typing this newsletter. I have had some encouraging phone calls, emails and letters from various people concerning “Bikers for Christ” to keep going even if there is no one on the rides, some have said hey, I might only make it to 1 ride a year but keep the newsletter going, that is what Christianity is all about - encouraging one another lifting each other up, I needed that from those who called. A house divided against itself will fall, united together we stand. Lets stand and ride for Jesus - Jesus is Lord is all that matters, we need to be Jesus with skin on to people.

I honestly believe we don't need a revival in the streets it would be useless! We need a revival in the church, a revival of love, care and concern for others. When I resigned as a Pastor from my previous church very few rang or visited me to encourage me, I received many relayed messages from my wife who still goes to that church, but sadly it was not enough. I have recently visited back there, and the first night I went I was totally swamped with people and well wishes even while the Pastor was preaching, that is what we all need. I loved to walk up to people who give their time in the church band, as a deacon, or whoever and just say to them you are doing a good job, God bless you and thankyou! We are only human and that little bit of appreciation to a person goes a long way, or am I the only one who is human?

Am I sheep or a goat? Do I hear the shepherds voice or am I always “but this” or “but that”, complaining and criticising. On that day when we stand before Jesus, we will stand alone! There will be no one else to blame or accuse, do we do things out of religious duty or is it because we want more of Jesus in our life. We need to check our fruit and judge ourself as the Bible says. Ask yourself am I doing What Jesus Would Do? Do I know him? The word knew in the beginning of this letter in the Greek means - ginosko a prolonged form of a primary verb; to “know” absolutely in a great variety of applications and with many implications allow, be aware of, feel, have knowledge, perceived, be resolved, can speak, be sure, understand. “Now that's personal”! Challenges me, how about you? - Stay upright, Roscoe.

Back to the future Rally!

All I can say is - What a Rally! Unfortunately my bike was dropped in the wet a couple of days prior and obtained damage beyond riding (Bumma). My intentions were not to go, but upon waking Saturday morning my wife had packed the car and given the royal order “lets go”.

I am glad I did, Kevin was there and levi turned up for a day, he should have stayed for the night as well as everyone reckons my tent was a ‘taj mahal’ and thats where the party was happening and it did. Quite few came and went throughout the night and it was the best rally I have been to in about 15 years, then again I haven't been to any rallies for that long ither. The Virago club done an excellent job, the gymkhana was a laugh and a half, the night time band was great and friendship - or should I say mateship, was beyond explanation. I am even looking at joining the Virago club (but I am not sure about buying a virago, I like my XJ900).

There must have been a few hundred bikes at least there with quite a range of camping gear, outfits and no attitudes, those of you who didn't go missed out on a great experience of the ultimate true biker culture, mateship regardless of what ya rode or who you were. I think I will start going on more rallies and “Bikers 4 Christ” will keep going! I will also be getting the front patches made when financial, so let me know if your interested in getting one, no politics or strings attached for it, you buy it, it's yours to keep. - Roscoe.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

A few of you I don't here or see from. Unless I hear from you this will be the last newsletter you receive unless you contact me and let me know you want it. “Bikers 4 Christ” will keep going, and we will be working more with the CMA (Christian Motorcyclists Association).

Bikers 4 Christ is not a ministry! It is a monthly social event with a newsletter FREE of charge. “Freely we have received freely give” That's the motto! Of those who have not yet contacted me to keep receiving the newsletter now is the time to do it or you will not longer receive it as I will assume you are not interested.

BIBLE TRIVIA. What does the word Bible mean? This was shared with me by a man I have known for about 15 years, he has only just really turned to Jesus full on for the last 3 months and was talking with the Lord one day when this is what he saw.

Behold
I
Bring
Life
Eternal

But if you want to get theological and want the true meaning of the word Bible, it is a greek word “biblos” which means “collection of books in one book”. I like the other one better.
